SOCIAL JUSTICE CORNER

“There appeared to them tongues of fire,” and “they were all filled with the Holy Spirit.”
What a powerful introduction to Pentecost! But what is the Spirit that filled each of the Apostles? What is the Spirit to us today?

In Give Us This Day, Edward Hahnenberg reminds us that the Spirit has been with us since the moment of Creation. We find references to the Spirit all through the Old Testament. The Spirit serves as the bond of love between the Son and the Father, but also as the living link between Christ and his people.

Henri Nouwen in Jesus: A Gospel, says that with Pentecost, the Spirit of God comes to dwell within US. Yes, US. WE can become living Christ’s here and now. “Pentecost embraces all peoples and empowers us. The Spirit can become the guiding spirit of our lives. In that Spirit we can speak and act freely and confidently with the knowledge that the same Spirit that inspired Jesus is inspiring us.”

Let us allow the Holy Spirit to guide us in our lives. Let us be open to the power of that Spirit. Let us pray, “Dear Lord, you promised your disciples that you would not leave them alone, but would send the Holy Spirit to guide them. Lord, be with me as I pray for guidance. Even with the best intentions I sometimes wander off to less important things. Send your Spirit, Lord, so that your Spirit can pray in me. Lord, give me your unifying and consoling Spirit. Amen.”

Sandwiches for the Homeless Thank you for your donations to the sandwich-making ministry here at Queen of Apostles. We meet twice a month to prepare sandwiches, fruit and snack for the homeless who come to Casa De Clara, a Catholic Worker House in San Jose. We gladly accept donations of peanut butter, jam, granola bars and cash donations. Please bring the food to Fr. Jim’s garage. Cash donations may be left at the Rectory. Thank you for your generosity.

Pentecost Sunday

The season of Easter concludes with today's celebration, the feast of Pentecost. The Feast of Pentecost celebrates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon Jesus' first disciples. In today's readings and Gospel, we are reminded that the Holy Spirit is a gift of both peace and forgiveness. Jesus greets his disciples with peace and later commissions them to continue the work that He has begun. Jesus breathes the Holy Spirit upon the disciples and sends them to continue his work of reconciliation through the forgiveness of sins.

Peace and forgiveness are very important concepts but are not ones that are easily achievable. In fact, I have come across very few people who have mastered the art of living a peaceful life that is full of forgiveness. One of these individuals is my own grandmother who passed away three years ago this month. My grandmother was a woman who exuded faith, tranquility, and peace; simply being in her presence filled me with a sense of calm. In many ways, when I was with my grandmother, I always had a sense that God was present. Visiting her throughout her life took many different forms, from family functions to laughter filled chats, but my fondest memories of her came in those times that we would simply sit across from one another at the kitchen table in complete silence. She would smile at me with her eyes and say more in one look than in a thousand words. The Holy Spirit was with us in those moments; moments of peace.

During her life, she also mastered the art of forgiveness. This she instilled in every one of her grandchildren. There are many of us and as with all families, we had disagreements with one another. She would remind each one of us how important it was to forgive each other and to move forward in love, rather than hold grudges and continue to fight. I don't think that I ever saw my grandmother do anything but to forgive those who had wronged her, and never heard her speak ill of anyone.

My grandmother was a gift from the Holy Spirit to my family and a gift that I continue to hold onto in my memories. In my every day work with the students at Queen of Apostles School, I try to embody the virtues that my grandmother modeled for me when I was young. I am nowhere near as good as her, but I never give up and continue to try. It is my hope that I can be an agent of calm and forgiveness to those around me.

In closing, I ask that you take time to acknowledge the gifts from the Holy Spirit that have been placed in your life. And take time to pray to the Holy Spirit in thanksgiving for those gifts.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful.
And kindle in them the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.
And you will renew the face of the earth.

Lord,
by the light of the Holy Spirit
you have taught the hearts of your faithful.
In the same Spirit
help us to relish what is right and always rejoice in your consolation.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Blessings,

Twenty-six Queen of Apostles 5th Grade students participated in the Diocesan Choir Festival at Sacred Heart Church on Tuesday morning, April 17, 2018. They sang, "How Far I'll Go" from Walt Disney's "Moana." They practiced a couple of days a week from the end of February until the day before the festival. They were the sixth performance in the program of twelve elementary schools. They had practiced hard to learn this song in two-part harmony and sang very well. They each had a favorite out of the songs they heard the other schools sing, and everyone enjoyed hearing Presentation High School sing three songs near the end. The morning session ended with all the students and directors present singing, "Simple Gifts" together. Everyone has a good time at this annual event.

CONGRATULATIONS!!! ON YOUR FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

Grief Support Group 1st and 3rd Mondays 7 pm – 8:30 pm in the Parish Office

Are you, a family member or friend, grieving the loss of a loved one? Whether it's a current loss or one in the past, we will reassure you that there is hope for those whose loved one has died. Join others in support, friendship, and prayer in a confidential setting. We meet every 1st and 3rd Monday of the month in the Rectory. If you have any questions or need to talk, please call Shirley at 408-241-1209

Do you like to knit, crochet, quilt or sew? Here is a place to share your time and talent to give comfort to others. We are starting a new ministry of making shawls or stoles for the sick of our parish (those having surgery, cancer treatments, hospice, etc.) After the shawl is made and blessed, it will have a special prayer attached. One of our priests, deacon, or ministers will deliver it. If you are interested and want more details, call Julianne Simone 408-735-8862. Time and place of a meeting to be announced. You do not have to attend meetings to participate.

We lovingly pray for those in our Parish and families who cannot join us at Mass especially: Connie Corrales, Helena Richards, Joan Grotzinger, Joel Rivera, Barbara Mertzlufft, Antonia Luna, Janet Decker, Patrick Hoins, Tomas Arguello, Barbara Carrillo.. Please let us also pray for all our servicemen and women who serve in the Armed Forces throughout the world and remember them in our hearts today and everyday. We remember those dearly departed in our Queen of Apostles family and in our own families.

Peacemakers

Army Chaplain Emil Kapaun served in the Korean War and his group was overrun by Chinese troops near the demilitarized zone. At great risk, he kept his post in order to help the wounded. He was forced on an 87 mile march and imprisoned.

He remained serving his men for 6 months in the freezing cold then succumbed to the cold and disease on May 23, 1951.

We remember him as we remember all of our Veterans this month for their many sacrifices.

Veterans Prayer

God of power and mercy
You destroy war and put down earthly pride.
Banish violence from our midst and wipe away our tears
That we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters.
Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
